

Preliminary Author's Instruction Sheet
December 5, 2004

Thank you for your contribution to Volume 1 of Advances in Airline Economics. The publisher (Elsevier) hopes to have the book published sometime in latter half of 2005, pending the timely production of the final manuscript.

Please carefully read the following instructions and style sheet information. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Delivery of Final Manuscript: Corresponding authors are responsible for providing final versions of their manuscripts to the editor no later than June 1, 2005. You may either send the final manuscript via e-mail (to Darin\_Lee@lecg.com) or regular mail on CD or 3.5" diskette in Windows 2000/XP format, along with a hardcopy, to the mailing address listed below.

1. Length: There is no length restriction on contributions, although I would expect that most will range between 20-30 single-spaced typeset (i.e., book formatted) pages when completed.
2. Format: Final manuscripts should be double-spaced and provided in either Microsoft Word or LaTeX format. If you choose LaTeX, please be sure to include any accompanying style files (including bibliography source files) that are required to process the file. If you are using a word-processing program other than LaTeX or Microsoft word (i.e., Wordperfect, Scientific Workplace, etc.), please also include an Adobe Acrobat PDF file of the final manuscript in addition to the word-processing source file.
3. On the first page of your contribution, please include the title, followed by the author(s) name(s) and their affiliation(s). Please include contact information including e-mail addresses as footnotes to the affiliation and be sure to indicate the corresponding author. Acknowledgements should be added as a footnote to the title.
4. References to all cited works should be at the end of manuscript.
5. Tables: Tables should be sent as a separate file, with each table appearing on a separate page. Please clearly mark in the main text where each Table should appear, along with the desired caption/title, i.e., [INSERT TABLE 1 HERE, Caption: Summary Statistics].
6. Figures: Figures should be sent as separate files in either TIFF or EPS format. Please be sure that all figures will be clear to the reader when printed in black and white. Clearly market in the main text where each Figure should appear, i.e., along with the desired title, i.e., [INSERT FIGURE 1 HERE, Caption: Average Domestic Yield, 1990-2003]. Hard copies of all figures should also be sent to via regular mail to me at the following address:
